

This exhibit is built from FH Series extrusions and related components. The towering backwall utilizes side CBX placement to create a flush, modern appearance. The result is a seamless fusion of fabric and acrylic panels with a modular aluminum structure.

side cbx installation